DISCOVER THIS MONTH'S TOP PICKS

A screenshot of the carnival.com homepage. It features a large image of a cruise ship docked at a tropical beach where several people are relaxing. The Carnival logo is in the top left, and a "Favorites" link and "Log in or Create Account" link are in the top right. Below the image are four dropdown menus: "Sail To (1)", "Sail From", "Dates", and "Duration (4)". Underneath these are filter options for "Number of Guests", "Deals", "Ships", "Vacation Budget", and "Specialty Sailings". A "Sort By: Low to High" dropdown is also present. At the bottom, there are buttons for "Clear all" and various date ranges: "The Bahamas X", "6 Days X", "7 Days X", "8 Days X", and "9 Days X".

Where did these ships get all this cool Italian flair? Thank our sister line Costa Cruises (Grazie, sorella!), but the onboard fun makes these ships our own! There's the new experiences inspired by Costa's heritage, like exclusive Terraza staterooms and great spots to sip like the Frizzante™ wine bar or fun frozen drink spot Rococo™... plus more great flavor in the form of Mex-Italian fusion at Tomodoro™ and elevated Italian classics at Il Viaggio. Speaking of classics, you can also expect plenty of Carnival fan-faves among the onboard food, entertainment and service.

Day 1: Manhattan, New York City

Departs at 4:00 PM

Start your Carnival cruise from the city that defined 'cosmopolitan': New York City. This urban island overflows with art and architecture, lively ethnic neighborhoods, designer shops... and the best restaurants in the world, from the ultra-high-end to the comfy neighborhood hole-in-the-wall. The top sights are clustered in Midtown Manhattan — you can easily check out Grand Central Terminal, shop on Fifth Avenue, and see the twinkling lights of Broadway® in Times Square on the same day. As your cruise leaving from New York glides down the Hudson River towards sunny islands or historic New England harbors, you'll pass metropolitan must-sees, world-renowned icons like the Empire State Building and the Statue of Liberty.

- Pause amid the rush of Grand Central Terminal to look up at the starry ceiling.
- Relax on the green lawns of Central Park.
- Walk the mile-long Brooklyn Bridge before you cruise from New York.
- Ascend the Empire State Building for 80-mile vistas.

Cruise Itinerary

Day 1: Miami

Departs at 3:30 PM

Dreaming of an island vacation? Make your dreams a reality with one of Carnival's year-round cruises from Miami. Because it's so close to the Caribbean and The Bahamas, Miami is known as the cruise capital of the world. But it's more than just convenient — rev up for your cruise from Miami with the city's nonstop action, from party-ready South Beach to the Mediterranean style of Coral Gables, plus spicy Little Havana, which hums to an island beat. Once you've experienced all the South Florida architectural beauty, energetic street life and sun-kissed beaches, you may want to extend your stay in the Magic City after your cruise returns.

- Drink up the sizzling nightlife on boisterous Ocean Drive.
- See the classic architecture in the South Beach Art Deco historic district.
- Grab a cafecito and a Cubano sandwich on Calle Ocho in Little Havana.
- Enjoy sightseeing, shopping, beaches, restaurants and bars on a hop-on/hop-off bus.
- Glide past gators on an airboat ride in the Everglades.
